

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Before Camp Lejeune	3
The Paleoindian Period:
The First Prehistoric Settlers of North Carolina	3
The Archaic Period: Hunters, Gatherers, and Foragers	3
The Woodland Period: Sedentary Villagers	4
The Beginnings of a Colony	6
Onslow County Is Established	7
Slow Growth During the Eighteenth Century	8
Early Statehood	9
The Civil War	10
The Twentieth Century	12
Origins of Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune	15
Evolution of Amphibious Assault and Base Defense Missions	15
The U.S. Prepares for War
and Marine Barracks New River Is Established	16
Marine Barracks New River	18
U.S. Naval Hospital New River	24
Construction Continues, 1942-1943	25
Housing	26
Architectural Character of the New Base	27
United Services Organization	29
Marine Corps Training Center, East Coast, Fleet Marine Force	31
The New River Graduate School of Invasion
(New River Pioneer, 15 October 1942)	31
Training Center Organization	32
Camp Lejeune's Ranges	34
Artillery Training	35
Special Units	37
Paramarines	38
War Dogs	39
Royal Netherlands Marines	40
The African-American Marine Training Experience,
Montford Point	40
Marine Corps Women's Reserves	43
Aviation Facilities at New River	44
The War Ends	45
The Postwar Period and the Beginning of the Korean War	47
After World War II	47
Demobilization of the Troops	47
Demobilization at Camp Lejeune	47

New Role and New Tenants	48
The Reserves	50
Postwar Construction	51
More Housing	52
Relationship with Jacksonville	53
The Corps Integrates	53
Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune During the Korean War	55
Wartime Activities at Camp Lejeune	56
Role of the Reserves	57
African-American Marines and Women Marines	58
Active Duty	59
Other Operations	60
Marine Corps Air Facility New River	60
Marine Helicopters and the Korean War	60
The Douglas-Mansfield Act	61
The Cold War Period	63
Aviation at MCAF New River	65
Housing for Aviators	66
Mainside Facilities	66
Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune in the Vietnam Era	69
Life at Camp Lejeune	70
MCAS (Helicopter)	71
Training	71
Racial Tensions at Camp Lejeune	71
Efforts at Resolution	72
The Post-Vietnam Period	73
Life at Camp Lejeune	73
Training	74
MCAS New River	75
Life in Jacksonville	75
The Cold War Period and Beyond	77
The Marine Corps During the Cold War	77
Beirut	77
Grenada	78
Panama	79
Cold War Reorganizations	79
Post-Cold War Operations	81
The Gulf War	83
The Marines' Mission	83
After the War	84
Changes to Camp Lejeune	86
New Missions	87

Changes of the 1990s	87
Natural and Legal Events	88
Jacksonville and Onslow County: 1990s and Beyond	90
Beginning A New Century	93
II Marine Expeditionary Forces	93
Marine Corps Combat Service Support School	94
School of Infantry	95
Significant Training Developments	95
Aviation	97
New Challenges	99
War on Terrorism	99
Iraq: An Ongoing Mission	101
Camp and Community	103
Acronyms and Abbreviations	105
Acknowledgments	107
Further Reading	109
Photo Credits	113

